Ecpe Honors Workbook Teachers Book Pdf Ecpe Honors is an English Standardized ExaminationsÂ®Â .Our Classroom Blog Blog Archives A very hard cold day in the UK today, so no chance of a walk in the park. We were all rather excited today when the postman turned up, as we were looking forward to the end of term and collecting our end of year certificates. Thankfully today was a sunny day and we all ate some lunch outside, at the same time meeting up and introducing ourselves. I spent much of the lesson building some bridges out of LEGO, which I had bought last night. I was pleased with how I did, and our tutor Jonathan, my fellow group member, enjoyed a lot of the creative building. After lunch today we had our first lecture from Dr. Deneen Morris. Dr. Morris gave us lots of interesting facts about historic languages. One such fact was ‘the most recorded language in history was written in Sumerian and no one ever understood a word of it’. As well as the subject of language, Dr. Morris also discussed why we learn maths and science, and showed us how to ‘make life easier for ourselves by understanding maths’. As we were all arriving home, our tutor and fellow group member, Josh, showed us around the area, looking at an old iron pump and then into one of the d0c515b9f4
