If you want to reset the license key for use in another computer, go to Tools>Options. Change the Activate on a New Computer field to the next free license key. Click on OK. Is there a way to close the license agreement window automatically after the license key is activated on a new computer? I hope I understand your problem. I don't see how you can close the license agreement window. What happens if you use another program? I just installed Autocad on a new computer and would like to change the key without having to go through the activation process every time. I hope I understood your problem.
