Remember the very first person who ever helped you to learn how to play the guitar? He has been there with you every step of the way to help you achieve your dreams. When was the last time you thanked him for his help? Well, I want to thank a person today who has been with me on the journey of learning how to play the guitar. You know who you are. I could not have picked a better person for this. During my years playing guitar he has never failed to believe in me, to support me and to constantly encourage me. I cannot express how much I appreciate his input, feedback and support. He s helping me to do things I never believed were possible for me. When I started playing the guitar in the year 1994 and I wanted to be good, he never questioned my intentions and never doubted my ability to be a great guitar player. The guidance and support he gave me proved him to be a true teacher and a guru, someone who has helped many to achieve their dreams. Today, I have seen him with people he has not taught in the past as a complete stranger or someone who has no idea who he is. He has been down on his knees playing with the babies in a church nursery. He has been the friend and mentor of the girl next door to me. I am very lucky to have had the opportunity to get to know him and to have him be in my life. I am extremely grateful for his trust, faith and continued support. I want to take the time to thank him for what he has done for me. I want to do this in the hope that he will feel the love I have for him. I hope you will be able to find it in your heart to do the same. I know he has been waiting a long time for someone to appreciate what he has done for you. With his permission I hope you can recognize him
