The Elden Ring is a fantasy action RPG, where you develop your character according to your play style and adventure in a massive world. The game's story is set in the Lands Between, where the four elements are divided into four nations and are politically connected to each other. The Elden Ring has established the "War of the Elements" to seal away the Elemental Lands from this chaos. The four nations of the Elden Ring ally themselves with the forces of light in order to fight the forces of darkness. Rise as a warrior and protector of the light, master the skills of the Elden Ring and forge your own path in order to become an Elden Lord. Key Game Features: * An Entire World Full of Adventure - A vast world which is seamlessly connected; Adventure in various situations such as open fields with a variety of enemies, huge dungeons with complex and three-dimensional designs, and battlefields. * Go Along on an Epic Adventure - In addition to the main story, you can enjoy the many game contents. Tournaments, mini dungeons, and special events will be held all the time, so just get into it. * Customize Your Appearance - You can freely customize the appearance of your character. With a wide variety of weapon and armor sets as well as magic, you can create a character according to your play style. * Multiple Characters for Online Play - You can develop as many characters as you want, and freely switch between them. Play online with others who are creating their characters on the same server, or challenge another player to a PvP battle. * An Epic Drama - A multilayered story, where the various thoughts of the characters intersect in the Lands Between. It is a story you can look forward to hearing and enjoying for a long time to come. * Three-Dimensional Environments - A wide variety of enemy variety. Each enemy has its unique attacks, and engaging in fierce battles becomes an even more

Read More...Software :Q3AMissing Kempton Park baby girl found murdered Published duration 12 July 2015 The body of a one-year-old girl who went missing when her mother died in Kempton Park has been found. The body of Mina-Maryang Wadi, found in a field, was discovered about 350m from where she was last seen alive at her home in Sibaya on Saturday, police said. It is believed she met her death on Saturday afternoon or Sunday morning. A murder investigation has been launched. "Preliminary post-mortem investigations have shown that the little girl's death was a result of a homicide," South African police said in a statement. "The post-mortem process is still continuing and our investigators are working with forensic, canine and photographic experts at the scene, in order to map the exact route the child may have followed to meet her tragic and untimely death." Her family told the BBC that they had last seen her on Saturday afternoon at 5pm. Thabisi Ubiso of the City of Tshwane said Mina-Maryang's father and four brothers had been at the home and now the family was in temporary accommodation while arrangements are made to find a new home for them. The body, which is in an advanced state of decomposition, was found by a resident in a nearby field about 350m from where she disappeared. After initially failing to find
