Designed by Linotype in 1930 and based on the Dutch newspaper handwriting from the early 20th century, Helvetica Neue is primarily associated with the Swiss printing industry but is distributed worldwide. It is a Swiss GPOS-based system font with very wide character sets. The license to use the fonts can be obtained directly from Linotype. Helvetica Neue LT W1G is a modern weight of the popular Linotype Neue. It has a slim, modern, corporate style intended to work well with headlines and block copy. It is similar to popular western styled fonts like Arial and Helvetica and has full Cyrillic coverage. Linotype Neue is a crisp, clean typeface that offers everyday usage in simple or medium text. It was designed by Abraham Crispin in the 1950s and has been the most popular of the Linotype Neue family of typefaces since its release. Helvetica Neue is the most popular commercial typeface in the world, adopted for all sorts of publications, including books, newspapers, magazines and on the Web. It has been the most popular typeface in the Netherlands since its launch in 1995, and is the most widely distributed typeface in the world. OpenType Neue Helvetica Pro includes over 200 ligatures, greater than 500 text figures and microtypography, original toolbars for a more uniform appearance, and the added bonus of improved scan conversion of OpenType fonts. It is especially designed for use with Adobe's InDesign software, and is ideal for use in print and the web. What is Neue Helvetica Pro?Neue Helvetica Pro is a new open type, high-quality typeface and expansion of the family of typefaces with a unified look that is optimal for web and multi-media.
