STATE of Texas, Appellee. No. 33791. Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas. December 6, 1962. Shaw & Shaw, by C. E. Randall, Amarillo, for appellant. Leon B. Douglas, State's Atty., Austin, for the State. WOODLEY, Judge. The offense is burglary of a habitation; the punishment, two years. The appeal is before us by virtue of an order of this Court, after conference with the trial court, setting aside the plea of guilty entered by the appellant and remanding the case to the trial court for trial before a jury. The evidence of the State, unproved and undisputed, shows that on October 3, 1961, the appellant entered the house of Mrs. J. H. Cross of Lubbock County, Texas, through the basement window and committed the burglary. The indictment was returned November 29, 1961. Thereafter, on
