Formula Renault 3.5 Series His best result to date was fourth place at the season opener in Barcelona. At the season finale in Macau, by finishing sixteenth he also ended the season in fourth place in the Eurocup Formula Renault 2.0 Series standings. Formula Renault 2.0 Series In the Eurocup Formula Renault 2.0, he started from eleventh position at the season opening in Barcelona, and finished third in the other three events, where he always finished in the top five. Partnership with Start & Park Racing Adameskis was a partner to the new Swedish team, Start & Park Racing, and he started three of the four races at the season opener in Barcelona, finishing sixth, twelfth and fourth. At the season finale in Macau, he finished thirteenth, and at the Estoril round, he finished a surprising thirteenth in the other race. LMP2 category WeatherTech SportsCar Championship After a disappointing season in 2010, the 33-year-old Colombian was back in the Prototype class of the Le Mans Series for 2011, driving for United Autosports alongside Ricardo González and Tomáš Enge. At the start of the season, he and his crewmate González were sharing a third B2K Racing Audi RS3 LMS, however, after the season finale at Brands Hatch, both of them left the team and took the new Rebellion Racing Lola-Aston Martin. At the season opening in March at the Bahrain International Circuit, the team elected to share another car with Antonio García and rookie Tom Kimber-Smith, making it the first time in his career that he was sharing a car with two people in the field. Since he was sharing the car with García, a team-mate that he had never raced with before, Adameskis refused to share his Audi sponsor, choosing to retain his own BMW logo on the car, something that he normally doesn't do. At the third race at the Circuit de Spa-Francorchamps, he had the first full race weekend in the team and drivers. After teammate Kimber-Smith crashed out

A: That appears to be a check for the serial number on the box that came with the Launch X431. You could try running through the process of getting the box again, but if the serial number doesn't appear to match with the one in the App Store or the device's manual, you probably won't be able to get it to work (though, presumably, that would come back as a usable password/serial number). #!/bin/sh -ef # # Licensed to the Apache Software Foundation (ASF) under one # or more contributor license agreements.
