To join you may do one of the following: Please join in the discussion by commenting on this post and any other topic below! If you have any questions, please feel free to email me, or join me on Facebook. Grab your baking tools and a bowl, and let's get baking! Me, my 'in-cakes' and my ladyfiesty cakes Today's challenge: BOK-BOK: Hen Tie Club Challenge The Hen Tie Club (hen tik club) is celebrating 100 years as a registered society in England and Wales. There is an afternoon tea party at Harrods to commemorate the event being held next weekend (March 16) and they have invited me to bring my Snowflake Butter Cake. The official rules for this challenge are as follows: Ingredients 1 x 18cm standard cake (you don't have to use a snowflake butter cake) 1 quantity Rich Icing 1 quantity Edible Icing Sugar Fondant Green & Pink Sugar Lace You may decorate the butter cake with any colours, flavours and scents that you wish. No separating or complex recipes! You may use any moulding technique you wish, but we recommend the Boke-BoK mould if you are using a tie as, although it is a 'cheat' shape, it looks quite cute and avoids the drips that can occur if the tie doesn't quite fit in the oven. You may have up to 12 hen hashers party so if you want to make a Snowflake Bend Cake then plan ahead. Availability of ingredients and ingredients I use are limited. If you don't want to join this challenge you can make a Snowflake Bend Cake instead and share your photo on our Facebook Page. I know for sure that I will be making the cake three different ways:
