Built-in integration: Channel strip, bus, or rack/ensemble and track IO;.Q: Returning a variable from a deferred function I am trying to return a value into my parent function. I have read other answers on the topic but most of them are too old and do not work. I have tried returning a deferred as a function in a

"resolve" function in another promise but am getting the following error

Uncaught TypeError: Cannot read property '0' of undefined at i
