183091 camp trunk v. northeast public service dist. 06/02/2016 in an action in which a vehicle in a cross-dock lot was damaged by a vehicle owned and operated by a dock-rental company (southport), the circuit court erred in denying the dock-rental company's motion for summary judgment, in which the dock-rental company argued that the deregulation act (code 58.1-2201 through -2574) shields it from liability, the public service act (code § 56-262) shields it from tort liability, and the dock-rental company was not negligent. the circuit court erred in denying, on grounds of public policy, the motion of the utility district to suspend the running of the statute of limitations, in which the utility district had sought to suspend the running of the statute of limitations on a counterclaim against the dock-rental company, on the grounds that the dock-rental company and its driver had committed fraud in obtaining property from a municipality by means of intentional misrepresentations. the judgment of the circuit court is affirmed in part, reversed in part, and the matter is remanded for further proceedings consistent with this opinion. 189041 city of newport news v. shrewsbury & fulton beach associates 06/02/2016 in an action in which the virginia taxicab commission (rtc) sought a declaration that a portion of a street in the newport news waterfront development area is a public highway in which a county commissioner is empowered to grant rights of way for sidewalks, sewers and water lines under code 56-608, the circuit court erred in declaring that, even though a portion of the street is designated as a county-maintained sidewalk within a designated county park, it is nevertheless a part of a public highway in which the rtc is empowered to grant rights of way for sidewalks, sewers and water lines. the judgment of the circuit court is affirmed in part, reversed in part, and the matter is remanded for further proceedings consistent with this opinion. 5ec8ef588b
