Pages Friday, January 22, 2013 Mustard & Roses Part 3 - Before Here is last week's shot to warm you up for this week's. The colors and layout are the same, but my colors have changed a bit. I used some of my geraniums for this week. I like how they look with the stem numbers that I put on in the background. Here is my desktop background from this week. I have really enjoyed creating this layout. I did not show any of the elements in the demo. The elements are to the side of the flowers, so I did not want to show them. I was allowed to use whatever background I wanted, so I chose a glossy photo paper. I started with watercolor Distress Ink colors: Madder Rose (to add a few blossoms), Rust (for the stem and background), and Sepia (for the bottom of the cup). I also used some Silky Stroke (a white gel pen). I created the title using a stamp by PrimaLoft, several different fonts and fun tape. I used the Phrase Art 7 stamp set and Geranium Stamp Set by Stampabilities. I stamped the Geranium flower images from the stamp sets onto a piece of patterned paper (Colored Clay, by K&Co), then I embossed and heat embossed it with white embossing powder. The leafs are stamped with the same colors and sentiment, cut with the oval cutter in the Artisan Tool Kit (as you can see in the pics, I used the edge of a letter for the stem) and I stamped them on a piece of kraft paper. I stamped the sentiment with the same colors and embossed it 3e33713323
