June 13, 2018 â€” Scientists have calculated that each sparrow eats almost two kilograms of grain a year. Every million sparrows killed releases enough grain to...feed about 20 million people! But, as you know, "nothing lasts forever under the moon." With the advent of the B-52 bomber and its more modern versions, as well as bombers capable of carrying nuclear weapons, birds were banned for the Americans. Approximately 5 million birds are killed annually in the US, according to the US military, and the process is gaining momentum.
