Schecter Serial Number Database

(0 reviews) Karen - Catawba, NC I am looking for serial numbers on Gibson guitars with the fretboard inlay (usually black dots) from around the turn of the millennium. I know they are not Schecter guitars, but I am so in love with a particular one that I would like to know more about it. The serial number is not on the body of the guitar. It is on the fretboard, and it is on a Gibson Fender Stratocaster guitar. Robert - Cambridge, KY I would like to find serial numbers of certain Gibson guitars. I have several models in mind: the Les Paul Deluxe (probably serial number 492341), the Les Paul Standard (probably serial number 576198), and the D-45 (no serial number on the neck plate). Seth - Wantagh, NY I have an 88' Harmony acoustic with an SR7885 serial number. It has a 1/4" nut and is stamped "Made in USA". I'm pretty sure that it was made by Schecter. It's a Schecter steel string acoustic that I bought at a pawn shop for about $100. If you have the serial number, I'd love to find out what it means. Thank you! Seth - Wantagh, NY I have a 1989 vintage ZZ1 that I bought at a pawn shop. The neck and body are rosewood and it has a serial number of 126606 stamped into the underside of the body. Marty -Haslett, MI I have a late 70s Les Paul with an unusual serial number, (the only one I've seen) that was left off when a new neck was put on the guitar. The number is "M1M6C", which I can't make any sense of. (0 reviews) Cody - Groton, MS I have a guitar that has the serial number on the neck plate. It is stamped with a 6.
