Skyrimtx Mods Download

mjollnir is a skyrim mod, created by the skyrim mod creator mrunal, that adds a new npc, and a custom weapon. much like "the warden of winkingdale", the mod has no known backstory or anything like that. the main goal of the mod, as stated by mrunal, was to create a melee weapon, like in the elder scrolls series. mjollnir is it. when using the melee weapons, it's effects are unrivaled. it's beautiful and it's what you want from a melee weapon in skyrim. hello everyone! now i am gonna rant and normally i dont do that on here but i must make an exception for this time. i am sure most of you who do play tes: skyrim and mod it might know of someone name skyrimtx. they are well known for stealing followers and other mods from modders who have worked on said mods, then skyrimtx somewhat alters these mods and sells them which totally sucks and yeah i know that there cant be anything done about that. i had emailed gtx wondering if there was a way to receive these mods without paying. unfortunately they told me no and said if i desired the mods theymade it was gonna cost 350$ for all the mods but if i wanted one it would be 40$ oh and they wanted me to pay 56$ a month for their webpage for stolen mods!well there was no way in all of oblivion i was even gonna pay that much for any kind of mods (i do like to donate to my favorite modders when i can) i told them that and i also that it was fucking crazy to even charge that much and that i know theyre stolen and just ridiculous to even sell these mods. this is the reply they sent me: want to play skyrim like a seasoned adventurer, without all the grinding? then follower companions and personal skills is a mod for you! this mod gives you companions which can be leveled up, while allowing you to keep your player level fixed throughout the game. supported by the companion dialogue system. 5ec8ef588b
