It was released on 6 May 2011 in Europe and on 2 June 2011 in the US. Plot On her first day at high school, Linn's first impression of school is an unhappy one, mainly because her classmates and teachers all behave with such hostility towards her. As she walks away, she hears, "Remember, today's your birthday." Linn wonders what this strange message means. She runs home to her mother, Ylva, and father, Enrico, who are away for a family holiday on the Greek island of Kos. Linn feels alienated from her parents, even though she loves them. She longs to go back to her childhood home and live there again. Linn reluctantly leaves for her family's holiday home in Kos. Her mood improves when she reunites with her friend, Sara, who is holidaying with her father. Linn also meets her eccentric aunt, Maja, and her mother's former lover, Manolo. When Sara accidentally breaks Linn's favourite doll, Linn goes searching for the doll and finds a mysterious diary with an aged leather cover. Inside the book she finds a note written in her mother's hand: "Linn, like you, is my special gift from the Goddess. Remember that the Goddess is watching over you." While staying with Sara and her father, Linn reads and enjoys the diary, but when she reads her mother's diary, she discovers her mother had an affair with Manolo, which they call "Pellaton". Feeling disoriented, Linn leaves Sara and her father's apartment on the evening of
