Was it the chorus of "All Right, All Right" that shot across the crowd of attendees to the Orange County Choppers headquarters building on July 21? Though I never, to my knowledge, meant to steal the show from the boat race it turns out that, in doing so, I stole the spotlight. I'm speaking, of course, of the team of builders and artists that behind the camera and out in front of it, put on the Choppers Invitational, the event that they call their show. I did not plan on going because I, a news video journalist, wasn't invited. But I was. And I went. A few years back, a friend of mine, Brian Wright, was named Orange County Choppers' new broadcasting director. He asked me to come down to his office at the show's headquarters building in Hialeah Gardens and meet the team. I was there. I asked about the new direction of the show. ♦ 3da5e8ca3
