I've tried two browsers and three computers. I always get that error: I don't know what can I do to fix it. Maybe it's the problem with my computer or the problem with my internet connection. I would appreciate if someone can help me. P.S: English isn't my native language, I'm sorry if I made some mistakes. A: Turns out it was your browser tab in background that was locking out your account. Restart the browser, remove that tab, and it would have worked fine.
