Bhubaneswar: After rejecting the Centre's proposal to increase the rates of MPLADS (Minimum Public Line Allowance for Developmental Services) on the plea that it did not provide adequate benefits, the State government has decided to go for a complete overhaul of the scheme, and the rates of MPLADS will be increased by five times, a top official said on Monday. "MPLADS is a part of the Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS). Since the allocation of funds for MPLADS is based on the number of children below the age of three receiving beneficiary families, and the scheme is being implemented under the supervision of the state, the state government cannot neglect the scheme when it is under their control," State ICDS Minister Nayana Karmakar told PTI. "The Centre has proposed increasing the MPLADS rates by a maximum of 10 per cent every year. But when the state government is paying the highest rates, it is only fair that the other rates are also increased," she said. Under the ICDS, the state pays about $1.7 million per year to facilitate early childhood development services including nutrition, health and education to vulnerable children below three years of age in beneficiary families. In 2012-13, the state government had allocated Rs 1,644.59 crore to the scheme. According to her, the state will focus on increasing the funding for the scheme and monitoring the implementation. In 2012-13, a maximum of Rs 50,000 was granted under MPLADS to beneficiary families in Odisha. The state government will enhance the rate to Rs 1 lakh per family of beneficiaries and the state may partner with the Centre for the same. "There are some schemes that are being run by the Centre with funds available under the MPLADS rates which are giving benefits to beneficiaries," she said. "These schemes are being implemented under the Centre as it is spending the funds to provide services to the beneficiaries. While the state government spends the
