Pump up the mood and power up your game using different power-ups. 'Start the Pump' is a free game that works on any mobile device as long as your device is supported by Java 7 or higher. I have been programming since 2005 and I have only recently started getting serious about it. This is definitely a learning experience for me. However, I have been programming in Java since 2007, but have only recently started getting serious about programming for mobile devices. So while I have been programming much longer than you've been alive, I am fairly new to the mobile development world. And I plan to add more functionality (such as tutorial mode and in-game hints) as I go along. Thanks for your help and reviews! Hello, I just uploaded my game "Proximity" and its free on Google Play. The game is minimalist, still in development, but might be just the thing to pass the time while waiting for a bigger project to finish. This is my first Android game, so maybe you can help to find out what I did wrong. If you like the game and want to support me I would be glad. Anyways, I don't have a lot of experience in developing games on Android so if you have any pointers for me please do tell. Thanks!X-ray analysis of a tetracycline-supersaturated nanocapsule. , bestow Exotic Gift War Magic (magical ability) - Haste [0/20 min cooldown] Exotic Weapon (weapon) - Blessed Bow [0/5 min cooldown] (red dye) (any) : Work on Druids is complete! Thanks for all your hard work trying new builds, theorycrafting, and forum posts! You have contributed to the last iteration of Druid classes, and we appreciate your contribution. This cycle, we have brought a Druids class that prefers to be silent, but the occasional movement and/or aggression. Again, there is an element of silence as the Devotion (Templar) tree is a melee class that uses silence to escape the grasp of its enemies. Expected PvP behavior for this class is similar to Cataclysm's Savage Combat abilities and Battlegrounds, where sprinting down the middle of a battleground (melee range) and landing silencing blows against the opponent's face are a popular tactic. When you need to, you can channel your Devotion tree to temporarily boost your movement speed, which takes advantage of Effigy of Earth Totem's passive ability to do just that. In addition, there are a few new gems available (not pictured here) that offer more "Cata-like" effects. More information on the new gems can be found in this forum thread The Devotion tree at level 20 is a two-handed Dark Soul, and all resources are consumed to cast the spell. Devotion outside of combat will yield about 1% of your total mana. Mists of Pandaria: Ashes of Outland Level 13: Blazing Spirits Level 16: Miracle's Widow Level 20: Moment of Courage Level 23: Clarity of Mind The attack speed slow of Ashes of Outland isn't as strong at level 18, but it does remain through level 23 (because the cast animation doesn't resume until you stop moving). There are few attack speed slowing spells in Mists of Pandaria; there is Clarity of Mind, but we don't want to convert too much of our points into pure damage from a melee caster, and Miracle's Widow is a vital boss mechanic, so we also decided to use the Devotion points there (no change for this cycle). Even though we didn't want to directly convert Devotion to pure damage, we weren't fully unhappy with most of the Devotion tree. We kept the one-handed Dark

Are you ready to get your ball moving on some pretty sick marble game play? Well, you've come to the right place. Marble Parkour is a 2D platform game where you'll jump, slide, jump and slide your way through and over the game's many obstacles, to progress through a series of beautifully crafted maps. As you play you will need to push, pull and glide your way through all of the game's many traps and hazards, while challenging a series of obstacles. Your only goal is to get to the next checkpoint. Some of these maps are crafted on impressively curved and winding paths, while others are more fun and approachable based on where the checkpoint is. Either way the path that you take will determine your fate. If you aren't careful, you may fall through the cracks of death and fall to the ground, or even get dragged off course by the challenges that are set before you. But, if you're carefully planned and execute your moves perfectly, you will find success and progress through all of the levels. However, obstacles are coming and our protagonist's are getting caught! The objective is to reach the level end by overcoming all of the obstacles while staying alive.
