What's new in Elden Ring:

File:///C:/Documents%20and%20Settings/cu1046/Desktop/opinions/00-077%20Opinion.htm [12] I often get questions at my speaking events about successful people and if I can learn how they are doing it. Unfortunately most people are doing it well only in retrospect. The answer is all of the system we share here. We are living in a world of abundant opportunity and yet when we are faced with that first obstacle or setback, it's all we can hear. All of the people we know are facing that same thing or worse. The good news is that with one big push or three smaller ones, we can accomplish anything. While doing so, we are creating habits, patterns and actions with Life We Want (or "Empowering Every Morning") and Life We Think We Deserve (or the 4 Charms) to support and not hinder us. One of the best aspects of watching a Master like Markelle Fultz at work on a basketball court or Bill Gates in the assembly plant at Microsoft is that we feel like we can be them in the future...just not today. So in this video clip, I am sharing how that's exactly what we do in each of our daily conversations. A dose of positive truth is a good tonic for the mind, helping us see where we are and where we're headed, helping us maintain a place of balance. A dose of positive truth comes in three little words...a fabulous attitude. It's not about forcing anything, but rather asking the inward question: "What can I do to get better in this situation, make the best of it?" It helps us avoid many mistakes and frustrations which only come from thinking with our head rather than our heart. So learn to push the positive button every time there's an opportunity for it. And when you're upset, you can also push it and remember to see the positive instead of judging the negative. * * * * * If you enjoyed this video, please share it. A lot of people would like to hear this little secret. And I really appreciate you my fans, friends and members for spreading the word to those who may be lacking in a bit of self-regulation or respect for others. I created a private Facebook Community for A3W members
