I saw him first after my brother's marriage and fell in love with him. In the streets of Delhi I saw him first. We were best of friends, a good comedian, a good storyteller. I had been at him before, but only in a serious manner. I would never criticize him or tease him. I respected him but I always felt that my love was yet to find. . Then one day we met in his office and started chatting. How many times do I have to tell you? Please, you're not my type.
